IMAGINING THE FUTURE OF THE CAR • NOVEMBER 28

2018 attendee summary

Our first Car Design Forum LA happened on 28 November 2018, as part of the Los Angeles Auto Show's Automobility section, and provided a fascinating, cutting-edge snapshot of the latest trends in automotive design, straight from many of the world's most acclaimed car designers.

With 15 high-profile speakers including Andy Woodman, Senior Design Manager of Lego, Stefan Lamm, Vice President of Mercedes-Benz Advanced Design and Frank Saucedo, Director of GM Advanced Design, California offering insights across the one-day forum, some 240+ senior designers flocked to hear what was on offer.

With this in mind, register your interest now for the 2019 Car Design Forum LA taking place in November, and join us for an unforgettable day of networking, exploring new opportunities and discovering where the future of car design lies.
